

Quotations about Friendship

- 1) "Do not save your loving speeches
For your friends till they are dead;
Do not write them on their tombstones,
Speak them rather now instead."
- Anna Cummins
- 2) "What is a friend? A single soul in two bodies."
- Aristotle
- 3) "In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends."
- Martin Luther King Jr.
- 4) "The best way to destroy an enemy is to make him a friend."
- Abraham Lincoln
- 5) "Never explain - True friends don't need it and your enemies won't believe you anyway."
"Don't make excuses - your enemies won't believe them and your friends don't need to hear them."
- Unknown

My opinion about the first quotation:

We should stop over and think about what message wanted a poet, Anna Cummins, leave to us. She captured one very important thing about friendship. Her poem remembers us significance of telling friends how much we love them. It's sad, that we usually don't do it. Or, if we finally manage to show our feelings to our friend, it's unfortunately too late, because one of us is not alive at that time, or we are too far away from each other. What a wonderful world it would be, if we didn't hide our emotions, our attitude to the friend and our relationship. Let's try to follow this idea to avoid moments when we regret what we didn't tell our friends.
