

THEATRES IN PREŠOV

Soňa Ond'aková

Theatre of Jonáš Záborský

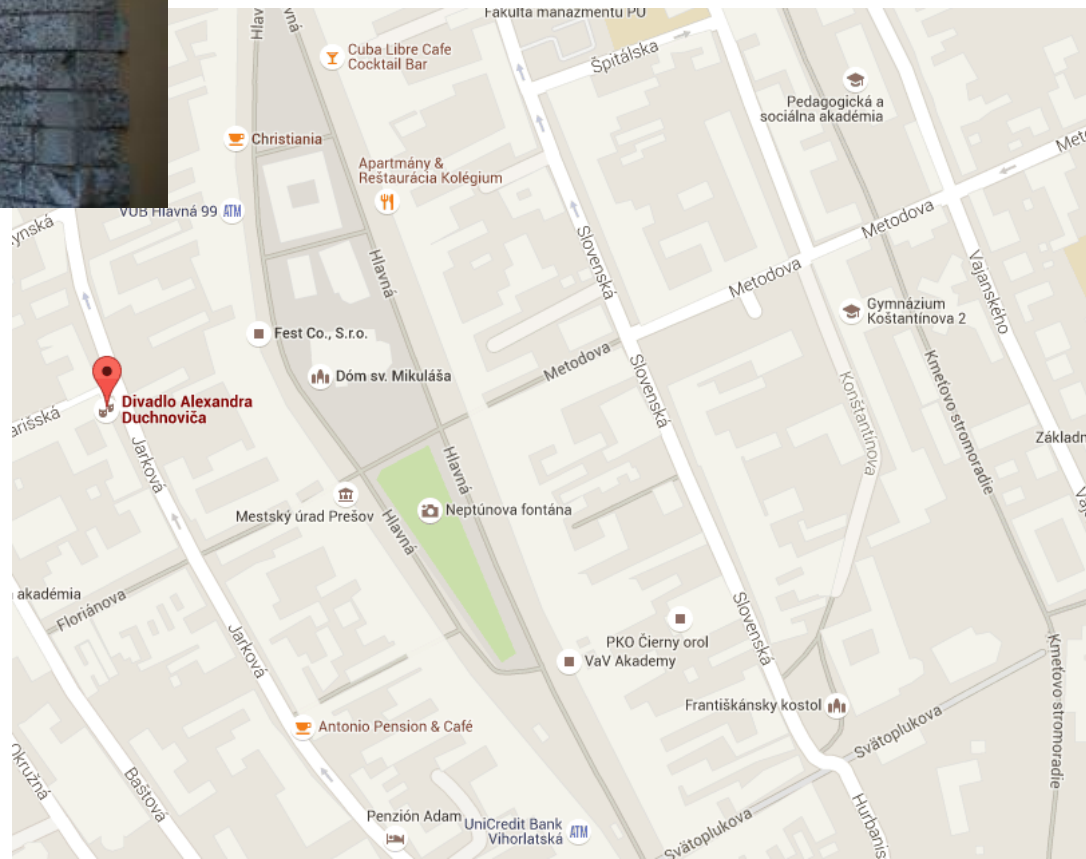

- ▶ It was opened in a repaired building in Prešov January 30, 1944
- ▶ In that time Prešov was a center of the eastern Slovakia and that is why the theatre was called The Slovak Theatre
- ▶ The first performance was written by slovak dramatist Ferko Urbánek and was called The Elf

- ▶ In 1951, The Slovak Theatre became The Regional Slovak Theatre and from the 10th birthday the name of the theatre changed into The Jonáš Záborský Theatre
 - ▶ It had three ensembles – drama, opera and chamber ballet
 - ▶ The historic building of the theatre has come back to the functioning after the reconstruction

Theatre of Alexander Duchnovič

- ▶ Is the only Slovak theatre providing plays in the Rusyn language
- ▶ Theatre was founded in 1945 as a Ukrainian national Theatre
- ▶ In 1990 it was renamed after a priest and social activist of the Rusyn nation Alexander Duchnovič
